Welcome and Opening Prayer

Call to Worship:

Leader: The dark night is behind us; the morning light erased all darkness and doubt.

People: All that remains is the empty tomb and the wrappings of pain and death.

Leader: The Lord has risen; he's no longer among the dead.

People: He lives. The Lord has risen!

Leader: Yes, the Lord lives! The new morning fills our hearts with joy and hope.

People: Let us then worship together, extinguishing all doubt and fear with joyful songs and an unbreakable faith in our Redeemer.

GPS – Grow, Pray, Study

- 1) Grow. How do you think finding the tomb empty and seeing the risen Christ affected Mary and Mary's faith? How does the resurrection impact your faith?
- 2) Pray. People we know are lost and hurting and broken. Pray that the Spirit will lead and guide you to share the living hope of Christ with someone this week.
- 3) Study. Read Matthew 28:16-20. Here in Galilee the resurrected Jesus is reunited with his disciples. What message do you take out of what he said to them?

Next Week's Lectionary Readings:

Next Sunday's Message: "Fullness of Joy" - The early church wondered if they should go underground, if they should try to blend in. Peter, the disciple and author, certainly played it safe when the fire came close to his own skin. He has wrestled with these questions. Peter has also experienced a new birth through Jesus. That is the hope in his heart and the hope and love that he seeks to share with us. It is our living hope, our cause for joy.
